1.	Regarding below mentioned query and reply of Clarification-1, it is mentioned in the reply that Differential relay is not required and has been referred to the amended price schedule. However, no such amendment has been found in Addendum-1. Query No:-484 PGCB/KfW/2012.66.436/NZSS Volume-3, Schedule 1: Bangura, Page B-15 Line differential protection relay 132 kV As per "BLOCK DIAGRAM - LINE BAY 132kV" Drawing No. PGCB/KfW/2012.66.436/SSNZ/2.4, there is no line differential protection. Please clarify the requirement of a Line differential protection relay as mandatory spare. PGCB's Reply Noted – differential relays as spares are not required. Please refer to amended Price Schedules. Please confirm whether we have to quote price against Differential relay(spare item) or not?	Bidders are requested not to quote any price against differential relay mentioned in the mandatory spare list under this contract (against Rajshahi, Bangura, and Mithpukur substation). Even if any bidder quotes any price against this item then it shall be excluded at the time of evaluation.
